

What Seniors Say About Our Service:

"We need more people like you, I can smile and relax, knowing that I'll be well taken care of."

"The volunteer I have is an angel; it's such a joy to have her in my home."

"I don't know how I would have managed these past few years without you..."

A Care Connection Service

Senior Options For Independence offers information and choices that enable older senior persons to live safely and independently at home.

SOFI is a comprehensive program that has come about through the planning and cooperation of the Fairport/Perinton Senior Living Council and the Fairport Baptist Homes.

SOFI employs experienced geriatric professionals who will visit you at your home and will work with you. We can guide you to safe reliable services to meet your needs.
